

125cc Street Motorcycle

This motorcycle is a reliable and efficient mode of transportation designed for urban and rural environments. It features a robust 125cc engine, providing a balance of power and fuel economy.

Overview

Reliable Urban Mobility

The HN125-4F is a versatile motorcycle engineered for consistent performance in both urban and rural settings. It combines a robust 125cc engine with a high-strength steel chassis to deliver an optimal balance of power, fuel economy, and long-term durability. Designed for daily commuting and recreational use, it features ergonomic seating and intuitive controls for an enhanced riding experience.

Engine & Performance

Engine Displacement	125 cc
---------------------	--------

Chassis & Handling

Suspension System

- Telescopic front forks
- Dual rear shock absorbers

Frame Material	High-strength steel
----------------	---------------------

Braking & Safety

Braking System	Front disc brake
----------------	------------------

Safety Equipment	Turn signals, Mirrors, Horn
------------------	-----------------------------

Electrical System

Battery Voltage	12 V
-----------------	------

Starter Type	Electric starter
--------------	------------------

Lighting	Halogen headlight
----------	-------------------