

20-60x60 Zoom Spotting Scope for Bird Watching

This spotting scope is designed for bird watching and general observation. It features a nitrogen-filled optical tube to prevent fogging and ensure clear viewing in various weather conditions.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Precision Optics for Nature Enthusiasts

The 20-60x60 Zoom Spotting Scope is a high-performance optical instrument engineered for bird watching, wildlife observation, and celestial viewing. Featuring a nitrogen-filled optical system, this scope effectively prevents internal fogging to maintain crystal-clear visibility in diverse weather conditions. With a versatile zoom range and a large 60mm objective lens, it delivers bright, detailed, and stable imagery for every professional outdoor user.

Optical Performance

Magnification Range

20 x

Minimum Magnification

60 x

Maximum Magnification

Objective Lens Diameter

60 mm

Features and Build

Included Components

- Tripod for stable viewing
- Integrated carry handle

Adjustment Controls

Component	Function
Focus Knob	Precise image sharpness
Zoom Ring	Adjust magnification level

Protection Features

Nitrogen-Filled, Fog-Proof, Waterproof