

Adjustable Wrench with Wide Jaw

This adjustable wrench is made from Cr-v steel and conforms to JIS standards. It features a newly designed structure and a larger jaw opening for increased versatility and enhanced grip on various fasteners.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Professional Adjustable Wrench Series

This new design series of adjustable wrenches features a wider jaw opening and a precision laser-carved scale for accurate adjustments. Engineered for smooth operation, the cold-rolling worm mechanism ensures reliable performance in any position. Built to exceed ANSI standards, these wrenches are available in both professional-grade Chrome Vanadium (CRV) and cost-effective carbon steel options.

Technical Specifications

Available Sizes

- 6 inch
- 8 inch
- 10 inch
- 12 inch

Compliance Standards

Exceeds ANSI Standard • JIS Standard

Material Options

Chrome Vanadium (CRV), Carbon Steel

Finishing Options

Chrome Plated, Black Nickel, Matte Nickel, Matte Chrome, Black Finish, Phosphated

Key Features

Jaw Features

Wide jaw opening with integrated laser-carved measurement scale

Adjustment Mechanism

Cold rolling worm for smooth movement at any position