

Agricultural Fertilizer Spreader

This machine spreads fertilizer in the field before cultivation, after cultivation for seeding, or during seeding. It is designed for 25-50 HP tractors and offers an 8-12 meter working width.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Overview

Efficiency in Field Management

This agricultural fertilizer spreader is engineered for versatile field applications, supporting both pre-cultivation and post-cultivation seeding and fertilization. Its robust design ensures consistent, even material distribution, making it an essential tool for modern farming. Built for durability and ease of integration, it serves as a reliable solution for maintaining optimal crop yields.

Technical Specifications

Required Tractor Power

25 HP
Min HP

50 HP
Max HP

Working Width

8 m
Minimum

12 m
Maximum

Compatible Materials

Fertilizer, Seeds, Granular Pesticides

Design and Build

Construction Details

- Heavy-duty steel frame
- Conical hopper design for steady flow
- Central gearbox drive
- Tractor-mounted configuration