

Air Bearing Load Moving System

Air casters use compressed air as a power source, offering cost savings and low friction. The systems facilitate the movement of heavy loads with ease and precision.

