

Air Bearing Moving System

Air bearing moving systems utilize compressed air to create a thin air film, enabling near-frictionless movement of heavy objects. The system comprises air bearing modules connected to a control unit, ensuring balanced weight distribution and smooth operation.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

