

American Type Tin Snips

These tin snips are designed in the American type style for cutting sheet metal. They feature hardened blades and ergonomic handles for comfortable use.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Precision Sheet Metal Cutting

These American type tin snips are engineered for high-performance sheet metal cutting, featuring durable hardened blades for extended service life. The design includes ergonomic handles that prioritize user comfort and control during repetitive tasks. A robust construction with a screw adjustment mechanism allows for precise leverage, making these snips an essential tool for professional metalworking applications.

Technical Specifications

Key Performance Metrics

1 Adjustable

Mechanism Type

Visual Characteristics

- Red Handle
- Black Frame
- Silver Bar

Construction Details

Hardened Blades, Adjustable Screw Mechanism, Ergonomic Handle, Professional Grade