

Android Smart TV Box with Camera

This smart TV box combines media playback capabilities with an integrated camera. It features multiple output options and connects to a TV for streaming and smart features.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Overview

Versatile Android Smart TV Box with Integrated Camera

This Android-powered Smart TV box transforms any standard monitor or television into a high-performance multimedia hub. Featuring a built-in camera, it is specifically designed for seamless video conferencing via apps like Skype and MSN, making it ideal for both professional and personal communication. With support for high-definition video playback and 3D somatosensory gaming, it offers a comprehensive entertainment and productivity solution.

Core Performance

Key Performance Metrics

1 GB RAM	4 GB Nand Flash	100 M Wired Network
--------------------	---------------------------	-------------------------------

Connectivity & Ports

Available Interfaces: HDMI, VGA, AV Output, USB 2.0, Ethernet (RJ45), Optical, DC IN, TF Card Slot

Network & Communication

Wireless Features

- Built-in Wi-Fi support
- 2.4G Wireless air somatosensory mouse support
- External USB keyboard and mouse compatibility

Multimedia Capabilities

Functionality

- Online video site playback
- Video chat (QQ/MSN/Skype) via built-in camera
- Direct decoding of HD video, music, and pictures
- 3D somatosensory game support
- Web browsing

System Requirements

Recommended Network Speed

ADSL 4Mbps or faster suggested for high-quality video streaming

Storage Support

External Storage Support

USB Removable Storage • TF Card

Design

Design Features

Sleek white enclosure with integrated mounting clip for monitors or laptops