

Assorted Building and Decoration Nails

These nails are designed for building and decoration applications. The collection includes different head types, shank lengths, and finishes, suitable for tasks ranging from general construction to decorative trim work.

Product Overview

Versatile Fastening Solutions

This collection of building and decoration nails is designed to meet a wide range of construction and aesthetic needs. Featuring a diverse assortment of head types, shank lengths, and finishes, these nails are suitable for projects ranging from heavy-duty structural assembly to delicate decorative trim work. With options including both steel and brass materials, as well as smooth and textured shanks, this set provides the necessary grip and visual style for professional project requirements.

Technical Specifications

Shank Variations

Smooth Shank • Textured Shank

Material Composition

Steel, Brass

Application

Common Applications

- General construction
- Decorative trim work
- Building assembly
- Woodworking projects