

Automobile Impact Absorption Bumper

This automobile bumper is designed to absorb impact and protect the vehicle's body in the event of a collision. The bumper is designed for easy installation and offers enhanced protection and aesthetic appeal.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Impact Protection Solution

This automobile impact absorption bumper is engineered to provide robust protection for trucks during collisions. Manufactured using high-quality fiber glass through an injection process, it ensures durability and structural integrity. The surface finish is meticulously crafted for a professional appearance, ensuring a seamless and precise fit during installation.

Technical Specifications

Dimensions

1830 mm
Length

200 mm
Width

620 mm
Height

Material

Fiber Glass

Manufacturing Method

Injection Molding

Features & Compatibility

Application

Truck Protection

Key Features

Impact Absorption, Precision Fit, High-Quality Finish, Easy Installation