

Automotive Central Door Locking System

This aftermarket system enables remote locking and unlocking of vehicle doors. It includes a control module, wiring harness, and remote key fobs for enhanced security and convenience.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Universal Central Locking Solution

This automotive central door locking system provides a comprehensive upgrade for vehicle security and convenience. Designed for aftermarket installation, the kit enables remote door control, trunk release, and car locating functionality. It integrates seamlessly with vehicle electrical systems to offer enhanced access management and modern comfort features.

Key Features

System Capabilities

- Remote lock/unlock
- Remote trunk release
- Car locating function
- Window rolling up output
- Adjustable locking time
- LED status indicator

Technical Details

Installation Overview

The system includes a control module, wiring harness, and remote key fobs. The control module is designed for installation under the dashboard, connecting to the vehicle's electrical system and door lock actuators to provide remote access control.

Visual Indicators

LED Indicator, Lock Status, Unlock Status