

Automotive Central Door Locking System

Central door locking system includes a control box, wiring harness, and mounting hardware. It is designed for automotive security, providing simultaneous locking and unlocking of all doors via included actuators.

Product Overview

Automotive Central Door Locking System

This central door locking system provides a reliable solution for vehicle security and convenience. Designed to allow for the simultaneous locking and unlocking of all doors, the kit includes a control box, a comprehensive wiring harness, necessary mounting hardware, and four door lock actuators. It is an essential upgrade for enhancing vehicle access control.

System Components

Included Components

- Control box
- Wiring harness
- Mounting hardware
- Four door lock actuators

Number of Actuators	4
Primary Application	Automotive Security, Vehicle Convenience

Quality & Compliance

Quality Standard

High Quality