

Automotive Interior Door Handle

This interior door handle is designed for automotive use. It features an ergonomic grip, integrated mounting points, and a textured surface.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Automotive Interior Door Handle Assembly

This automotive interior door handle assembly is engineered for reliable performance and smooth operation within vehicle passenger compartments. Constructed from durable, high-quality black plastic, it features an ergonomic grip design with a textured surface for enhanced tactile feedback. The unit is designed for secure installation, complete with integrated mounting points and a spring-loaded return mechanism for long-term durability.

Technical Specifications

Primary Application

Automotive Interior • Passenger Access

Material

Durable Black Plastic

Design Features

Ergonomic Grip, Textured Surface, Spring-loaded Return, Integrated Mounting Points

Installation Components

Included Hardware

- Metal linkage arm
- Mounting hardware
- Red plastic clips