

Automotive Interior Trim and Component Assortment

Selection of automotive components and accessories includes interior trim pieces, switches, and structural elements. These parts are made of varying materials such as metal, plastic, and composite materials.

Product Overview

Comprehensive Automotive Component Selection

This assortment provides a professional-grade collection of automotive interior trim and functional components. Designed for versatility, the set includes an array of plastic, metal, and composite parts essential for vehicle maintenance, repair, and aesthetic refurbishment. Featuring control elements, structural supports, and electrical connectors, this selection ensures high-quality replacements for various interior and select exterior applications.

Component Varieties

- Interior trim pieces
- Control knobs
- Electrical connectors
- Structural supports

Material Composition

Metal, Plastic, Composite

Key Metrics

Application Areas

Automotive Interior • Automotive Exterior • Repair & Maintenance