Automotive Keyless Entry System with Remote Control

This keyless entry system enables remote control operation of a vehicle's central locking system. It provides secure locking mechanisms for automotive applications.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Overview

Automotive Keyless Entry and Security

This automotive keyless entry system provides a robust solution for central locking and vehicle access control. Designed for reliability and ease of use, the system includes remote control functionality for locking, unlocking, and panic alarm activation. Its durable construction and ergonomic remote design ensure long-lasting performance and convenient daily operation for various automotive applications.

System Features

Remote Control Functions

- Lock
- Unlock
- Panic Alarm

Design & Build	Textured Finish, Enhanced Grip, Durable Construction, Leather Strap Included, Metal Keyring Included
Application	Automotive Central Locking