

Automotive Tail Light Assembly

This tail light assembly is designed for automotive use. It features red and clear lenses, a black housing, and electrical connectors for essential signaling functions.

Product Overview

Automotive Tail Light Assembly

This automotive tail light assembly is engineered for reliable performance and safety on the road. Featuring a durable black housing with high-visibility red and clear lenses, it integrates essential signaling functions including brake lights and turn signals. Designed for seamless installation, this unit serves as a critical component for maintaining vehicle safety standards.

Technical Specifications

Included Functions

- Brake Light
- Turn Signal

Application

Automotive

Housing Color

Black

Lens Configuration

Red, Clear