

Bicycle Protective Cap

This bicycle part is a protective cap with a cylindrical top and a flat, circular base. It is suitable for attachment or suspension purposes on bicycles.

Product Overview

Bicycle Protective Cap

This black bicycle protective cap is designed for durability and reliable attachment. Featuring a cylindrical top with a central hole, it serves as an essential component for mounting accessories or protecting bicycle parts from debris. Its sturdy, flat circular base ensures a secure fit, making it a versatile addition to any bicycle maintenance or customization kit.

Physical Properties

Color

Black

Design Features

Cylindrical top, Central mounting hole, Flat circular base

Usage

Common Applications

- Protective covering for bicycle components
- Mounting element for accessories
- Suspension or attachment point