

Black Steel Striking Hammer Wrench

This heavy-duty striking wrench is made from steel and finished in black for corrosion resistance. It is designed with a striking face, allowing it to be used with a hammer for increased torque.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Heavy-Duty Striking Hammer Wrench

This striking hammer wrench is engineered for high-torque industrial applications, combining the functionality of a spanner with a reinforced striking face. Constructed through a precision drop-forging process, this tool is designed to endure high-impact use in maintenance, construction, and manufacturing environments. Its robust build ensures durability and reliable performance when loosening or tightening stubborn fasteners.

Technical Specifications

Surface Finishes

- Black Painted
- Chrome Plated
- Zinc Plated

Material Options

Carbon Steel, Cr-V

Manufacturing Process

Drop forged

Commercial Details

Weekly Supply Ability

2000 pieces

Weekly Production

Minimum Order Quantity

1

Standard Delivery

25-30 days

Compliance

Certifications

ISO9001 • UKSA