

Brazilian Standard 10A Smart Plug with Power Metering

This smart plug is designed for use with Brazilian standard outlets and supports a maximum current of 10A. It features built-in power metering functionality, allowing users to monitor energy consumption.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Smart Energy Management

This Brazilian standard smart plug is engineered for efficient home automation and precise energy management. Featuring integrated power metering capabilities, it allows users to monitor real-time energy consumption of connected devices remotely. Its compact design ensures compatibility with standard outlets without obstructing adjacent sockets, making it an ideal solution for modern smart home setups.

Technical Specifications

Maximum Current

10 A
Max Current

Standard Type

Brazilian Standard

Features

Design Highlights

- Compact form factor
- Non-obstructive design
- Integrated manual control button

Key Capabilities

Power Metering, Remote Control, Home Automation, Real-time Monitoring