

Cable Crimping and Cutting Tool

This is a cable crimping and cutting tool. It is designed for use with specific types of materials, as indicated by compatibility markings.

Product Overview

Professional Crimping and Cutting Solution

The J26 is a specialized manual tool designed for precise cable processing, featuring ergonomic yellow and black grips for enhanced handling and comfort. This tool integrates both crimping and cutting functionalities, making it a versatile choice for technical professionals requiring reliable hardware. Its heavy-duty metallic head ensures durability under regular use, providing a clean execution for compatible cabling tasks.

Technical Specifications

Compatibility Profile

- Optimized for specific cable types
- Includes compatibility indicators
- Visual reference for compatible materials

Model Identifier

J26

Design and Ergonomics

Build Quality

Metallic Head • Ergonomic Grips • Manual Tool

Handle Colors

Yellow, Black