

Chest Freezer with Curved Glass Lid

This chest freezer provides efficient and reliable cold storage. It features a curved glass lid for easy viewing and includes a temperature control dial and casters for mobility.

Product Overview

Professional Cold Storage Solution

The SD/C-258 is a high-performance chest freezer designed for efficient and reliable cold storage in commercial and residential settings. It features a user-friendly curved glass lid that allows for easy visibility of stored contents while maintaining thermal integrity. Equipped with integrated casters for effortless mobility and a precise temperature control system, this unit is engineered to meet professional requirements.

Technical Features

Control Interface

- Temperature control dial
- Operational status indicator lights

Lid Design	Curved glass
Mobility	Yes

Usage

Application	Commercial, Residential
-------------	-------------------------