

Chrome Angle Stop Valve for Plumbing Fixtures

This chrome angle stop valve is designed for controlling water flow to plumbing fixtures. It features a durable chrome finish for corrosion resistance and a sleek appearance.

Product Overview

Professional Grade Flow Control

This chrome angle stop valve is precision-engineered to provide reliable water flow control for a wide range of plumbing fixtures. Constructed with a robust brass body and finished with a high-quality chrome coating, it offers exceptional corrosion resistance and a sleek aesthetic. It is an ideal solution for both residential and commercial plumbing installations requiring long-lasting performance.

Material and Finish

Body Material	Brass
Finish	Chrome

Application

Application Compatibility	Residential, Commercial
---------------------------	-------------------------

Key Features

Valve Attributes

- Corrosion-resistant chrome finish
- Durable brass construction
- Reliable shut-off mechanism
- Suitable for various plumbing fixtures