

Commercial Island Freezer with Sliding Glass Lids

This island freezer is designed for commercial use, featuring a spacious interior and sliding glass lids. The unit is equipped with a temperature control system to maintain optimal freezing conditions.

Product Overview

Commercial Island Freezer

This island freezer is designed specifically for commercial retail environments, offering a spacious interior that maximizes product visibility. It features sliding glass lids for convenient customer access while maintaining optimal freezing conditions. Built with robust construction, this unit is engineered to withstand the demands of high-traffic settings like supermarkets and convenience stores.

Design & Features

Lid Type	Sliding glass lids
Recommended Settings	Supermarkets, Convenience Stores, Retail Environments

Performance

Temperature Control System	Yes
----------------------------	-----

Construction

Build Quality	Robust construction for high-traffic environments
---------------	---