

Commercial Single Door Display Refrigerator

This single-door display refrigerator is designed for commercial use. It features a digital temperature controller and full foaming cabinet.

Overview

Professional Display Solution

This commercial single-door display refrigerator is designed for optimal retail product presentation and reliable cooling performance. Featuring an electronic digital temperature display and an integrated full copper tube cooling system, it ensures precise thermal management. Built with durable insulation and an automatic return door, this unit combines energy efficiency with operational convenience for high-traffic environments.

Technical Specifications

Cooling System	Brand Compressor, Full Copper Tubing, Integrated Insulation Foam
Temperature Control	Digital electronic display
Door Functionality	Automatic return door

Options

Available Modes

- Refrigeration
- Dual-Temperature (Freezing/Refrigeration)