

Compact Television Receiver with 24 True Output

This compact television receiver doesn't require software installation and saves computer resources. Features include clock and calendar display, fast automatic searching, and 24 true output.

Product Overview

Compact Television Receiver

This versatile television receiver is designed for seamless integration into various display setups, supporting both wired and wireless signal reception. It features energy-efficient performance with built-in clock and calendar functionality for added convenience. The device is compatible with both CRT and LCD monitors, utilizing advanced frequency technology to ensure high-quality output.

Technical Specifications

Output Quality

24 bit

True Output

Display Compatibility

CRT, LCD

Features

Core Features

- Low power consumption
- Built-in speaker
- Automatic signal search
- Integrated clock and calendar
- Game included

Eye Protection

Yes