

Construction and Infrastructure Project Services

These services cover general contracting for construction and infrastructure projects. They include project consulting, prospecting, design, and construction in chemical, petrochemical, pharmaceutical, power, and coal industry sectors.

