

Crushing and Culling Equipment

Crushing and culling equipment efficiently reduces the size of food materials. It also separates unwanted components to improve product quality.

Overview

Versatile Window Air Conditioning Solutions

This range of window-mounted air conditioning units offers efficient cooling solutions tailored for individual room environments. Designed for straightforward installation in standard window openings, these models provide reliable climate control. The series includes multiple capacity options to suit various room sizes and cooling requirements.

Technical Specifications

Available Models

- KC-32
- KC(D)-35(45)
- KC-50(60/70)

Installation Type

Window-mounted