

Digital Display Humidifier for Indoor Air Quality

This humidifier improves air quality and humidity in indoor environments. It features a digital display for easy monitoring and includes safety features like automatic shut-off.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Overview

Advanced Indoor Air Quality Solution

The AZ-501 is a sophisticated household appliance engineered to optimize indoor humidity levels for improved comfort and health. Featuring a sleek, modern aesthetic with digital monitoring, it offers intuitive touch-sensitive controls for mist intensity, timer functions, and UV sterilization. Designed for quiet and energy-efficient operation, this unit automatically maintains optimal humidity, making it an essential addition for creating a healthier living or working environment.

Key Features

Core Functionalities

- Digital humidity display
- Touch-sensitive control panel
- Automatic shut-off safety feature
- Built-in humidity sensor
- UV sterilization capability

Performance Metrics

Operational Metrics

70 %

Humidity Level (Sample)

71 %

Humidity Level (Sample)

Design & Build

Recommended Placement

Tabletop • Desk • Nightstand

Design Specifications

Modern Aesthetic, Two-tone Color Scheme, Translucent Water Tank, Compact Size, Quiet Operation