

Digital Plasma Cutter with Built-in Pump

This plasma cutter features an integrated pump, enhancing portability and eliminating the need for an external air compressor. The digital display allows precise current control, ensuring consistent and accurate cuts.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Overview

Professional Digital Plasma Cutter

This professional-grade digital plasma cutter is engineered for precision metal fabrication. Featuring an innovative built-in pump, it eliminates the need for an external air compressor, offering exceptional portability and convenience for on-site projects. The unit includes a digital display for accurate current control, ensuring consistent cutting performance across various material thicknesses.

Performance

Max Cutting Thickness

15 mm

Max Cutting Thickness

Tested Cutting Samples

- 8 mm
- 16 mm
- 35 mm

Technical Specs

Interface

Digital Display

Model Identifier

CUT-40P

Safety Features

Over-voltage protection, Over-current protection

Air Supply

Yes