

Digital Set-Top Box for TV

This digital set-top box receives and decodes digital television signals. It supports DVB standards and features a front panel display and multiple control buttons.

Overview

Professional Digital Television Decoding

This digital set-top box is designed to receive and decode digital television signals with high reliability. Built to support industry-standard DVB protocols, it ensures clear signal reception for professional broadcasting environments. The hardware includes integrated cooling features and a user-friendly front panel interface for efficient operation.

Technical Specifications

Hardware Features

- Front panel display
- Tactile control buttons
- Integrated ventilation cooling

System Performance

52 CH

Channel Capacity Index

Supported Standards

DVB, Digital Video Broadcasting