

Digital Terrestrial TV Receiver

This digital terrestrial TV receiver is designed for FTA version and MHEG-5, suitable for use in the EU and UK. It features standard definition output and supports an electronic program guide.

Overview

DVT-4101 Digital Terrestrial Receiver

The DVT-4101 is a reliable digital terrestrial receiver designed for standard definition broadcasting. It features full compatibility with DVB-T and MPEG-2 standards, making it an ideal choice for Free-to-Air (FTA) viewing in EU and UK markets. With its compact 180mm housing and versatile connectivity options, it integrates easily into existing home entertainment setups.

Technical Specifications

Model Number	DVT-4101
Standards Compliance	DVB-T, MPEG-2, MHEG-5, FTA
Decoding Capability	Standard definition MPEG-2

Connectivity & Ports

Video/Audio Outputs

- 1 SCART (or RCA)
- SPDIF coaxial output

USB Functionality	Yes
Software Upgrade	Yes

Physical Attributes

Housing Width	180 mm
Housing Material	Plastic