

Electric Crimping and Cutting Tool

This electric power tool is designed for cutting and crimping tasks. It features a compact and ergonomic design and includes interchangeable heads for diverse applications.

Product Overview

Professional Crimping and Cutting Solution

The TBJ-2 is a versatile electric power tool engineered for both cutting and crimping applications. Featuring a compact and ergonomic design, it ensures ease of use during prolonged professional and industrial operations. The system includes interchangeable heads to accommodate various task requirements, providing maximum flexibility on the job site.

Technical Specifications

Primary Applications

- Electric cable cutting
- Terminal crimping
- Industrial field service
- Professional installation

Model Identifier	TBJ-2
Key Features	Electric Powered, Interchangeable Heads, Ergonomic Design, Industrial Grade