

Electric Guitar Multi-Effects Processor

This multi-effects processor is designed for electric guitars. It offers versatile tone shaping capabilities for live performance and recording with amp modeling and cabinet simulation.

Overview

Professional Multi-Effects Processor

The COPPER M4 is a versatile multi-effects processor designed for electric guitarists seeking comprehensive tone shaping capabilities. It features advanced amp modeling and cabinet simulation, making it an essential tool for both live performances and studio recording environments. With an intuitive interface, players can easily dial in professional sounds ranging from classic tones to modern effects.

Technical Specifications

Amp & Cabinet Features

- Amp modeling
- Cabinet simulation
- Multiple amp models

Control Parameters

POD, Middle, Treble, Presence, Channel Volume, Bass, Drive, Output

Performance

Effect Processing

- 2.0 FX Effects
- Reverb
- Model Packs