

Electric Heating Pad Warmer with Adjustable Settings

This electric warmer appliance features a green heating pad with an integrated power cord and dimmer switch for adjustable heat settings. Designed for localized warming applications, the device is ideal for providing supplemental warmth in various environments.

Product Overview

Professional Localized Heating Solution

This electric heating pad warmer is designed for efficient, localized warming applications across various professional environments. It features an integrated power cord with a convenient dimmer switch, allowing users to precisely control heat output for optimal comfort. The device is constructed with a durable, wipeable surface and sealed edges to ensure longevity and maintain high standards of hygiene.

Technical Specifications

Certifications	CE
Power Plug	European-style

Design and Build

Maintenance	Wipeable surface with sealed edges for easy cleaning and durability
-------------	---

Features

Control Method	Integrated dimmer switch
----------------	--------------------------