

Electric Meat Grinder for Commercial Use

This electric meat grinder is designed for processing large quantities of meat in commercial settings. It features durable stainless steel components and multiple grinding plates for various textures.

Product Overview

Professional Performance for Commercial Needs

This high-performance meat grinder is engineered for efficient processing of meat, fish, and vegetables in professional kitchen environments. Built with a robust design and a powerful motor, it ensures consistent results while maintaining stability during operation. The unit includes versatile accessories for specialty food preparation, making it a reliable tool for diverse culinary applications.

Technical Specifications

Mincer Size	No. 8
Body Material	High-durability plastic
Processing Applications	Meat, Fish, Vegetables

Features & Accessories

Included Accessories

- Sausage making attachment
- Kebab making attachment

Safety Systems

Overload protection • Secure locking mechanism