

Electronic Cash Register with Receipt Printer

This electronic cash register is designed for retail environments. It features an integrated display, alphanumeric keypad, receipt printer, and a secure cash drawer.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Overview

Versatile Electronic Cash Register Solution

The ZQ-ECR800 series is a comprehensive point-of-sale solution designed for the retail and catering industries. It features a thoughtful functional design that supports diverse selling methods, including price changes, bill holding, and refunds. With integrated member management and powerful reporting capabilities, this system streamlines marketing efforts and provides deep insights into stock levels and sales performance.

Key Features

Core Highlights

- PC software integration for commodity data management
- Multi-mode selling functions (refunds, price changes, bill holding)
- Advanced restaurant features including dish taste options and meal sets
- Comprehensive member management for marketing
- Real-time system configuration via PC software

Reporting Capabilities

Available Reports

PTD Report, Stock Report, Shortage Report, Configuration Report

Technical Specifications

Target Industries

Retail • Catering • Point of Sale

Model Number

ZQ-ECR800

Hardware Components

Built-in Hardware

- Thermal Receipt Printer
- Integrated Operator Display
- Secure Cash Drawer with Key Lock
- Alphanumeric & Function Keypad

Data Management

Data Synchronization	Yes
----------------------	-----