

Electronic Payment Terminal

This electronic payment system is designed for diverse applications and features a user-friendly interface. Its compact design supports both stationary and mobile payment processing, with compatibility for credit cards, debit cards, and contactless payments.

Overview

Versatile Payment Processing

The TPS5000 is a compact and portable electronic payment terminal designed to support a wide range of transaction environments. Featuring a user-friendly interface with a clear display and intuitive button layout, it ensures efficient operation for both stationary and mobile applications. Built with advanced security protocols, this system provides reliable and safe processing for modern payment methods, including credit, debit, and contactless transactions.

Technical Specifications

Device Type	Electronic Payment Terminal
Form Factor	Compact and Portable

Payment Capabilities

Supported Payment Methods	Credit Cards, Debit Cards, Contactless Payments
---------------------------	---

Features

Key Features

- User-friendly interface
- Advanced security encryption
- Mobile and stationary compatibility
- Integrated display screen

Compliance

Compliance & Standards

Transit Systems Ready • Secure Transaction Certified