

Electronic Tax Control Cash Register

This electronic device combines cash register functions with tax control capabilities. It features a keyboard, display screen, and receipt printer to streamline sales and manage tax data.

Product Overview

Professional Tax Control Solution

This electronic tax control and money collecting machine is specifically engineered for middle-class business operations. It seamlessly integrates essential cash register functionalities with robust tax compliance features to ensure accurate financial reporting. Designed to streamline daily sales processes, this device includes an intuitive keyboard, a clear transaction display, and an integrated receipt printer for efficient customer service.

Core Features

Capabilities

- Integrated tax control compliance
- Cash register transaction management
- Built-in receipt printing
- Transaction display screen
- Data input keyboard

Target Segment

Middle-Class Business • Retail • Tax Compliant

Technical Specifications

Primary Function	Electronic tax control and money collection
Data Input	Physical Keyboard
Output	Integrated Receipt Printer