

Excavator Track Roller

Excavator track rollers are essential components of the undercarriage system. These rollers provide support and guide the tracks, ensuring smooth and efficient movement for excavators.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Heavy-Duty Undercarriage Component

These excavator track rollers, often referred to as bottom rollers, are engineered to provide robust support and precise guidance for heavy-duty excavator track systems. Designed to withstand demanding construction and excavation environments, they ensure consistent machine stability and smooth maneuverability across diverse terrains. Their durable construction makes them an essential maintenance component for maintaining optimal equipment performance and operational uptime.

Technical Specifications

Related Undercarriage Systems

- Sprocket
- Track Chain Assembly
- Carrier Roller
- Idler

Component Type

Track Roller, Bottom Roller, Undercarriage Part

Logistics & Packaging

Packaging Details

Units are palletized with protective yellow netting and secured with strapping for safe transport and storage.