

Exported Industrial Chemical Products

These chemical products were exported to Cuba under a contract signed and completed in 2008. The export included a variety of chemical substances, such as alcohols, alkenes, phenols, acids, aldehydes, ethers, and benzene derivatives.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Project Overview

Industrial Chemical Export Project

This project involved the successful large-scale export of industrial chemical products to international markets. Completed in 2008, the operation demonstrated efficient logistics and handling capabilities for chemical distribution. The shipment included a significant volume of petrochemical-related products, ensuring timely delivery and adherence to international trade standards.

Contract Year	2008
Completion Year	2008

Financial Details

Total Export Value

15.86 Million USD
Export Value

Logistics & Destination

Destination Market	Cuba
Packaging Standards	55-Gallon Steel Drums, Shipping Container, Secured Cargo