

Financial Data Gathering Cash Register

This electronic cash register is designed for financial tax control and data gathering. It features a thermal printer, keypad, and display screen for processing sales and managing financial transactions.

Product Overview

Professional Financial Data Gathering

This electronic cash register is engineered specifically for rigorous financial tax control and reliable data gathering. It combines secure transaction processing with efficient receipt generation, making it an essential tool for retail and business environments that require strict compliance. Designed for durability and ease of use, this device streamlines your daily sales management while ensuring data integrity.

Key Features

Core Functionalities

- Financial tax control and compliance
- Secure data gathering capabilities
- Integrated thermal receipt printing
- Manual transaction data entry
- Real-time transaction display

Compliance

Financial Tax Control, Secure Data Handling

Technical Specifications

Device Metrics

1 Thermal

Printer Type