

Flush Mount Floor Socket for Power and Data

This floor socket is designed for installation in floors to provide electrical and data connectivity. It features adjustable mounting brackets for secure placement and is designed to blend seamlessly into floor coverings.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Professional Floor Connectivity Solutions

The SCF-245C Series Open Type Floor Boxes offer a versatile solution for power and data connectivity in commercial and office environments. Designed for seamless integration, these units feature a recessed lid capable of accepting floor coverings for a flush, aesthetic finish. Built with a durable galvanized steel housing and a low-profile beveled flange, they ensure both long-term reliability and safety by minimizing tripping hazards.

Technical Specifications

Model Specifications

Model No.	Module Capacity	Compartments
SCF-245C	12	-
SCF-245CS	12	-
SCF-245C/86A	-	2
SCF-245C/86B	-	2
SCF-245C/120	-	2

Design & Material

Construction Materials	ABS Plastic (Lid), Galvanized Steel (Base Box)
Color	Dark Blue

Installation & Use

Key Features

- Recessed lid to accept floor covering
- Removable and reversible lid for flexible cable orientation
- Low profile beveled flange to prevent tripping
- Retaining cable guard with flip-up handle

Application Environment

Concrete Floor (Interior Dry Locations)