

Food and Beverage Transport Car

This railway passenger car is designed for transporting passengers or goods. It is commonly used in the food, beverage, or cereal industry for moving products or personnel.

Overview

Professional Transport Solution

This specialized railway transport car is engineered for reliable operation in food, beverage, and cereal industry logistics. Featuring a robust undercarriage design and a distinct blue and white exterior, it is built to meet the demands of industrial transport environments. The unit is optimized for efficient transit, ensuring consistent performance for professional logistics applications.

Technical Specifications

Maximum Operating Speed

100 km/h
Max Speed

Model Identifier

CX.82820

Design Features

Exterior Design

Blue and White Exterior, Red Stripe Detail, Multiple Windows, End Access Door

Undercarriage Configuration

Standard Industrial Railway Undercarriage