

Freestyle BMX Bike

This BMX bike is designed for freestyle riding and tricks. Its durable steel frame, responsive brakes, and sturdy wheels ensure reliable performance on various terrains.

Product Overview

High-Performance Freestyle BMX

The Safari-X2 is a high-performance BMX bike engineered specifically for freestyle riding and technical tricks. Featuring a durable steel frame and responsive braking system, it offers the reliability required for both stunt performance and everyday urban commuting. This robust and agile bike is built to withstand rigorous use across various terrains, making it an excellent choice for demanding riders.

Technical Specifications

Frame Material	Durable Steel
Key Components	Alloy Components, Responsive Brakes

Performance

Performance Features

- High agility for stunts
- Durable construction for tricks
- Reliable handling on various terrains