

Freestyle BMX Bike

This BMX bike is designed for freestyle riding and tricks. It features responsive brakes and a durable frame for enhanced control and safety.

Overview

High-Performance Freestyle BMX

The BMX FM208 is a high-performance bike engineered specifically for freestyle riding and tricks. Designed with optimized geometry, it offers a balance of maneuverability and stability suitable for riders of all skill levels. Its robust construction and quality components ensure long-lasting reliability and control during intense riding sessions.

Technical Details

Model Number	FM208
Primary Use	Freestyle, Tricks, General Riding

Features

Key Features

- Durable frame construction
- Sturdy wheelset
- Responsive braking system
- Ergonomic saddle and grips