

Full Suspension Aluminum Frame Mountain Bike

This full-suspension mountain bike is designed for trail riding. It features a lightweight aluminum frame and front and rear suspension for a balanced and controlled ride on varied terrain.

Overview

Full-Suspension Trail Performance

This full-suspension mountain bike is engineered for versatility on diverse trail terrain. Featuring a durable aluminum frame paired with high-performance suspension, it provides a balanced and controlled riding experience. Designed to handle both technical climbs and descents, this bike delivers reliable shifting and braking for demanding riders.

Key Metrics

Suspension Travel

120 mm

Front Fork Travel

120 mm

Rear Shock Travel

Technical Details

Component Highlights

- Full-suspension configuration
- Fox suspension components
- Shimano drivetrain
- Performance-grade braking system

Frame Material

Aluminum

Best Used For

Trail Riding, Climbing, Descending