

Galvanized Steel Electrical Boxes and Covers

These metal boxes and covers are constructed from galvanized steel for corrosion resistance and durability. They feature various knockout sizes for conduit entry, mounting brackets, and cover plates and are suitable for electrical wiring and junction applications.

Product Overview

Professional Grade Electrical Solutions

These galvanized steel electrical boxes and covers provide a durable and corrosion-resistant solution for various electrical wiring and junction applications. Designed for reliability, the assortment includes square, rectangular, and round configurations to suit diverse installation requirements. Each unit features precise knockout sizes for efficient conduit entry and integrated mounting brackets for secure installation.

Technical Specifications

Available Models

- 8932
- 8980

Certifications

UL • CE

Commercial Terms

Minimum Order

100 PCS

Market Reach

Main Export Markets

Eastern Europe, North America, Mid East/Africa, Central/South America, Asia, Western Europe, Australasia