

Gravity Feed HVLP Spray Gun

This high-performance painting tool features a gravity-feed design and a durable, lightweight body. It is suitable for automotive refinishing, woodworking, and general painting projects, ensuring a consistent and professional finish with various coatings.

Product Overview

Professional Performance

The H-827 is a high-performance gravity-feed spray gun engineered for versatility and precision. Designed with a durable yet lightweight body, it provides exceptional comfort during extended use. This tool is ideal for automotive refinishing, woodworking, and various general painting applications, ensuring a professional and consistent finish every time.

Performance Metrics

Key Features

- Gravity-feed design
- Adjustable fluid control
- Adjustable air control
- Lightweight ergonomic body
- Minimized overspray

Compatible Coatings

Lacquers, Enamels, Urethanes

Application Suitability

Industry Applications

Automotive Refinishing • Woodworking • General Painting