

Guitar Multi-Effects Processor

This multi-effects processor is designed for guitarists. It features a wide range of amp models, effects, and routing options for versatile tone creation.

Overview

Professional Multi-Effects Processing

This powerful multi-effects processor is designed specifically for guitarists seeking versatile tone creation. It offers an extensive library of amplifier models and effects, paired with flexible routing options to suit any sound. Built for both live performance and studio recording, the unit includes intuitive footswitches and an expression pedal for real-time control.

Technical Specifications

Control Interface

- Integrated Footswitches
- Expression Pedal
- Preset Selection Controls

Device Type	Multi-Effects Processor
-------------	-------------------------

Connectivity

Input Options	Guitar Input, Auxiliary Input
Output Options	Amplifier Output, Recording Output, Headphone Output

Usage

Application Scenarios

Live Performance • Studio Recording