

Hand File with Wooden Handle

This is a hand file designed for shaping and smoothing materials. It features a wooden handle and a threaded metal end.

Product Overview

Professional Grade Hand File

This hand file is designed for precision material removal in both woodworking and metalworking applications. Featuring a durable wooden handle, it provides a comfortable and secure grip for manual operations. The integrated threaded metal end allows for versatile attachment options, making it a reliable tool for professional workshops.

Physical Characteristics

Handle Material	Wood
Handle Design	Tapered

Technical Specifications

Model ID	A1
Attachment Mechanism	Threaded metal end

Application

Primary Applications	Woodworking, Metalworking
----------------------	---------------------------